Bluebird Tour Program provides life enriching and fun travel experiences for all residents age 55 and older who reside in Prince William County and the cities of Manassas and Manassas Park. A trip can range from one afternoon to several days. Call the Bluebird Hotline: 703.792.7433 for up-to-date information on schedules.

Each new tour is first offered to the 55+ Prince William County residents. If they do not fill the tour at the end of two weeks it is then open to adults of any age who do not have to reside in Prince William County. Tour schedules are printed quarterly and are available at the Prince William Area Agency on Aging. Tour departures vary depending on the trip.

Participants should evaluate their physical status prior to signing up for a trip, and must feel comfortable that: They can be away from home for a period of time, They can manage medications on their own, and Can negotiate required walking, either by themselves or with prearranged assistance.
