

Heart Health Education

Age Requirements

No Age Requirement

Available 24/7

No

Other Eligibility Criteria

Persons with issues regarding cardiovascular disease, family and friends

Intake Process

Visit the website for educational resources, may also call for more information.

Self Refer

Yes

American Heart Association

<http://www.heart.org/en/>

Main

(800) 242-8721

7272 Greenville Avenue

75231 TX

United States

Fee Structure

No Fee

Languages Spoken

English

American Heart Association provides a toll-free information service to answer questions about heart health, cardiovascular diseases or stroke. Also provides speakers, films, and literature on heart disease provides publications on good nutrition, weight control, fitness, and recipes.

AHA also provides online training and classes

- Learning Library which provides online professional resources (commentaries, clinical updates, and affiliated journals) from the AHA.
- ECC Class Connector is an online search tool to find local classes (CPR, AED, First Aid, etc.) by scheduled training dates or location.

- eLearning.heart.org which provides online education Emergency Cardiovascular Care from the AHA.

Service Area(s)

Nationwide

,

Statewide