Located in the beautiful northern Virginia town of Berryville in Clarke County, Johnson Williams is a multifamily community for low-income senior citizens age 62 and older. The 40-unit building has 34 efficiency units, 4 one-bedroom units, and 2 two-bedroom units. Apartments are rented to seniors meeting the income guidelines.

This building was originally Johnson Williams Intermediate School, and in 1991 it underwent an adaptive rehabilitation. Further upgrades were performed in 2012.
