Volunteer opportunities are available at and through United Way of Greater Williamsburg. Volunteers needed for office/clerical work as well as annual activities such as Day of Caring, volunteer awards ceremony, and more. With the new Volunteer Solutions web-based software (provided free of charge through United Way of America), volunteers can search for and apply to agencies for opportunities in the community which might include office work, event assistance, board positions, general agency assistance, specialty work such as construction, electrical, plumbing, etc.

United Way of Greater Williamsburg is a member of United Way of America. Please call or write to the Volunteer Center Director if you are interested in volunteering or visit the website at www.uwgw.org to view opportunities in the community.
