The Dialysis Facility Compare section of the Medicare website gives detailed information about Medicare approved dialysis facilities. New dialysis facilities may not appear for several months after being approved by Medicare. Important Information on Dialysis Facility Compare and other resources are included to help you choose a center.

Visit Dialysis Facility Compare to help choose the dialysis center that is right for you. You can locate a dialysis facility, review the services and performances, learn more about kidney disease and dialysis and learn more about Medicare coverage of dialysis and transplantation.

Dialysis Facility characteristics include the address and telephone number of the facility, the facility's initial date of Medicare certification, shifts starting at 5 PM or later (if you need your treatments in the evening), the number of treatment stations, the types of dialysis offered (in-center hemodialysis, peritoneal dialysis, and home hemodialysis training).
