Brenda A. Morris, Certified Financial Planner (CFP), is an Investment Advisory Representative with Humane Investing, LLC. As a fee-only practice, the firm provides advisory services on an hourly basis and does not sell any products or accept incentives in any form from any entity. If you allow First Affirmative Financial Network the privilege of managing your investments, your fee will be based on the amount of assets under management. The initial appointment will consist of discussing your desires and aspirations, and developing a plan of action.

If your plan includes money management, the investment will be through the firm's association with First Affirmative Financial Network. Fees are based on an annual percentage of assets managed and are deducted directly from your account on a quarterly basis.
