The Heritage Inn of Charlottesville is an assisted living community offering residential and assisted living care for senior citizens, serving ambulatory and non-ambulatory residents. It is located in the heart of Pantops in Charlottesville within a few minutes of the major hospital system operated by Martha Jefferson Hospital and the University of Virginia Hospital. Respite care is also available.

Staff assists with daily living activities, including bathing, dressing, and grooming. Private or semi-private rooms are available for residents to choose from, all on one-level living. The dining room serves nutritious home-cooked meals three times a day. Rates are all-inclusive. The activities department provides activities seven days a week. Fully accessible to persons with disabilities.

Capacity, including memory care residents, is 72.   Please call for an appointment and a tour of the facilities.
