Eldercare Locator Information Specialists connect older adults and caregivers directly to local Area Agencies on Aging, Title VI Native American aging programs, Aging and Disability Resources Centers, and other pertinent aging resources nationwide. Callers can also order brochures and speak with a Spanish-speaking Information Specialist.

Additional education on long-term care options, senior transportation, benefits eligibility, and caregiver issues is available if requested.

The National Association of Area Agencies on Aging (n4a) administers the Eldercare Locator, a public service of the U.S. Administration on Aging (AoA).
