At the Hampton-Newport News Community Services Board, Comprehensive Outpatient Services for Adults is a clinical practice offering a full spectrum of outpatient mental health services. The facility treats adults eighteen years of age and older, including the geriatric population. The comprehensive approach begins with a full clinical assessment of a client's history, current symptoms, and goals. Individual, group, family, and couple psychotherapy and psychiatric services are tailored to meet an individual client's specific needs. As part of a large, well-integrated, full-service agency, the program offers a holistic treatment approach to maximize an individual's mental health and well-being.
