The Culpeper Career Resource Center provides services as a one-stop for both job seekers and employers.

The Center has many valuable tools available for the use of job seekers. There are computers with Internet access, a copy machine, fax machine, and telephone also for their use. Daily newspapers, bulletin boards with job postings, Internet job listings, as well as face-to-face job networking are all a part of the Resource Center. Tutorials are available here, personal assessment programs, career consultants, and college information. Program Coordinators are available with information on the WIA Program (educational funding for low income or dislocated workers). Assistance with resume writing and information on community services available. No fees are applicable for any service offered here at the Culpeper Career Resource Center.
