Mountain Lynx Transit provides public transportation for residents and visitors of Washington County. Vans travel a fixed route with deviations possible. Schedule information is available on the website. Call for schedule details.

Customers are picked up at or near their homes in the county. The bus then proceeds to a designated commercial center where customers are taken to a destination of their choice. Multiple destinations may be accommodated depending upon the needs of all the passengers within the time allotted. In-town customers are welcome to board any county route while it is in town but must pay a separate 50 cent fare for each boarding. Destinations and stops on county routes are determined by the driver for the convenience of the county riders only.
