African American Breast Cancer Alliance (AABCA) is dedicated to providing hope, awareness, education, and support to breast cancer survivors, their family members, and the community.

It is important to pay attention to changes in your body, take charge of your health and take care of your life. AABCA encourages women to learn about breast health and breast cancer. Do not ignore changes in your breasts or delay seeing a healthcare provider if you find a problem. Review the Breast Cancer 411 link for more information. Learn how to do a Breast Self-Exam (BSE) with a video. Recognize the early signs and symptoms of breast cancer, seek help and medical attention. Your breasts depend on you.

Call or email for more information about breast cancer.
