Virginia Hispanic Chamber of Commerce (VAHCC) can assist with finding a job or employment. This free service offers a bilingual job placement database that may be searched in English or in Spanish. Businesses, corporations and other non-profit organizations are able to contact VAHCC seeking bilingual employees to develop a diverse workforce.

Individuals may use the online Job Postings center to identify their work related skills and develop an online resume. Services available include resume building, job referrals, job-search training workshops, access to information regarding ESL and GED programs and more.
