ServiceSource Senior Services provides supportive services focusing on social inclusion to enable seniors with minor cognitive and physical disabilities to actively participate in the day-to-day activities at Fairfax County Senior Centers.

The program's goals include:

- Allow seniors with disabilities to enjoy the wide range of programming found at Fairfax County senior centers;
- Enable participants to remain in the least restrictive environment and maintain as much independence as possible;
- Reduce loneliness and isolation by providing fun and enjoyment in addition to preserving dignity and enhancing the quality of life for each participant.

The program offers:

- Therapeutic Recreation: Recreational therapists are available to design and implement adaptations and modifications needed to support members' participation in day-to-day center activities.
- Case Management: Staff offer guidance and provide referrals to individuals and families in determining the appropriate programs and services to meet seniors' needs.
