Access Williamsburg offers transportation, paratransit and community, to the local area. Access Williamsburg is a partnership of three current transportation providers: The Arc of Greater Williamsburg, Peninsula Agency on Aging and Williamsburg Area Transit Authority with a mission of coordinated transportation scheduling through the use of a single telephone number that will allow senior citizens over the age of sixty and individuals with disabilities to utilize a single access point for their transportation needs.

Please call with as much advanced notice of a needed ride as possible.
