The Summit is a Life Plan Community that provides independent living featuring Lakeside Garden Homes. One-bedroom traditional, and two-bedroom apartment floor plans offer choices that feel like home with no maintenance inside and out. A continuum of care services is available where you live including:

- assisted living,
- short-term rehabilitation therapies,
- long-term skilled nursing care.

The Summit Health and Rehab Center is located on The Summit's campus. To learn more about the short-term rehabilitation and long-term skilled nursing care offered to The Summit residents, visit the Summit Health and Rehab Center website. The Summit residents have priority access to their services. To learn more about this partnership, contact The Summit's marketing department.

Community amenities information is available on The Summit website.
