Thorn Law Group works with individuals, families, and business owners across the nation and abroad to develop wealth and estate planning strategies and solutions that best support their current and future goals.

Thorn Law Group's firm has worked to establish a strong network of international lawyers and financial professionals operating across the globe to support their wealth and estate planning practice. They consult and collaborate with these attorneys to create wills, trusts, foundations, and other documents; they are instrumental in assisting their clients in dealing with complex international estate planning and tax issues. When necessary, these attorneys also litigate on behalf of their clients in international court proceedings.

They assist individuals in Fairfax, the state of Virginia, and Nationwide having additional office locations in Boston, the District of Columbia (DC), Maryland, and New Jersey. As well, they speak English, French, Chinese, and Hindi.
