

Healthy kidneys are critical for overall health and can be related to other conditions such as diabetes. Take steps to prevent kidney disease and reduce your risk for kidney failure by minimizing the risk for CKD, making lifestyle changes, taking prescribed medications, and seeing your primary care physician on a regular basis.

---

View PDF